

Rally Media Accreditation

Conditions of Use (Summary)

1. The Motorsport UK Rally Media Accreditation holder must abide by the Code of Conduct at all times.
2. Members of the media must sign on with event organisers and will not exercise the privileges of Motorsport UK Rally Media Accreditation until having done so.
3. The Motorsport UK Tabard must only be used for genuine work purposes, and are non-transferable from one person to another. Use of a Motorsport UK Tabard on events at which the holder is not signed on and working for a recognised media outlet will be deemed an abuse of the privileges of Motorsport UK Rally Media Accreditation and will result in that accreditation being revoked.
4. Accredited media must not be accompanied by family members or guests while at work under the privileges of Motorsport UK Rally Media Accreditation
5. Motorsport UK Rally Media Accreditation holders will not use advanced technology, such as drones, without the specific prior written authorisation of Motorsport UK, the event organiser and the landowner, and compliance with the Motorsport UK Drone Policy.
6. The Motorsport UK Rally Media Accreditation holder will not exercise the privileges of accreditation if they are aware of any medical or other reason that renders them unfit to do so.
7. Motorsport UK Rally Media Accreditation holders must always keep out of Prohibited Areas.
8. Motorsport UK Rally Media Accreditation holders must wear their Tabard at all times during an event, ensuring that they are always clearly visible.
9. The Motorsport UK Rally Media Accreditation holder will share any photographs of serious accidents with Motorsport UK for investigative purposes.
10. When on the competitive section of a special stage, i.e. beyond the stage start and up to the stage finish, Level One Motorsport UK Media Pass holders cannot stand in locations to which ordinary spectators do not have authorised access.
11. When on the competitive section of a special stage, i.e. beyond the stage start and up to the stage finish, Level Two Motorsport UK Tabard holders may only operate in locations additional to those to which ordinary spectators have access when those locations have been agreed with the event organiser in writing in advance and are included in the event's Safety Manual. The Motorsport UK Safety Delegate must be made aware of all such agreements and has the authority to amend those locations on the day if necessary
12. All Motorsport UK Rally Media Accreditation holders are required to have a risk assessment for their media activity, which adequately addresses the hazards, risks and control measures for each event.
13. The Motorsport UK Tabard will remain the property of the Motorsport UK. Motorsport UK reserve the right to revoke accreditation and demand the return of the Tabard at any time and may do so if any of these conditions – or the Rally Media Code of Conduct – is deemed to have been broken.
